

MINER TESTIFIES HE HEARD COLLINS GROAN

CAUSES A WAVE OF EXCITEMENT AT SAND CAVE

NEWSPAPER MEN BARRED FROM THE COURT MARTIAL HEARING

DEPTH OF SHAFT IS NOW 52 FEET TO THE TOP OF THE TIMBERING

(By United Press)
At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 14.—Hope that Floyd Collins might be brought from the depths of Sand Cave alive ran high again over these bleak Kentucky hills today.

Cheered by the stories of miners who went into the cavern which Collins entered 15 days ago, skilled miners sinking the new shaft toward the entombed explorer hoped for his rescue at any time.

Miners who penetrated the corkscrew hold toward Collins' prison, said they distinctly heard a gasping groan from the entombed man. They made the statement under oath before the board of inquiry investigating rescue efforts. A shortcut to the cavern which would make unnecessary the long grind of drilling and drifting is expected to be uncovered today, H. T. Carmichael, in charge of digging operations, announced today.

A test drill eight feet from the shaft being sunk toward the rock prison of Collins revealed a cavity nine feet deep at the 60-foot level.

The hole is only an inch in diameter, but Carmichael hopes it may be enlarged enough to admit a rescue party. Workers will widen it with dynamite if necessary. They hope the cavity will lead up to Collins' prison or possibly be the same one in which he lies. Collins, according to revised estimates, is almost on the same level with it.

Brigadier General H. H. Denhart, military commander, caused tremendous excitement late yesterday when he announced that Edwin Brenner, Cincinnati, had gone down the original tunnel choked near Collins' with fallen stones and had heard Collins gasp. Brenner, a former miner, volunteered for the work, Denhart said.

This caused the wave of excitement which swept the country around noon yesterday.

An excited officer about this time ordered all workmen and newspaper men back from the pit and the rumormongers started that Collins had been saved.

Denhart announced later that the men had been ordered back so that Brenner, listening far below as he crawled through the barricaded cave could hear any possible sound from Collins.

Brenner's statement was read into the record of the court martial of inquiry into rescue work scandals which was being held today in a tent near the scene. A sentry paced before the door. Every outsider, including newspaper men, is excluded. After a lengthy session late yesterday, Denhart called in the mining men and informed them of Brenner's discovery.

Officers of the inquiry announced themselves convinced that Collins lives.

The official communique issued early today reads:

"The depth of the shaft is 52 feet to the top of the timbering, leaving a three-foot section at the bottom to be timbered.

"The material we are now penetrating is limestone boulders and is very wet and slippery earth. We are experiencing considerable trouble with slides, necessitating the removal of one cubic yard of material to one three-foot section.

"Drilling the shaft at a depth of 71 feet, we found a limestone bottom after passing through six feet of loose mud and no further use for drilling was found. The limestone lies southwest, which is in our favor and is in accordance with calculations.

"Work is being pushed to the utmost with specially picked labor. The weather is favorable and the morale of the men excellent.

CHILD'S BIRTHDAY PARTY TURNS INTO TRAGEDY; 3 KILLED

(By United Press)
Austin, Tex., Feb. 14.—A child's birthday party was turned into a tragedy near here late yesterday when three young girls burned to death in their haybarn playhouse. The dead:

Francis Cullen, 6; Dorothy Cullen, 4, and May Hardin, 6.

Firemen were taking the bodies, burned beyond recognition, from the blazing ruins when J. B. Cullen, father of two of the children, reached home, unaware of the disaster and with his pockets filled with birthday presents for 4-year-old Dorothy.

nearly exhausted from tireless efforts, was forced to return to his home in West Virginia. Volunteer labor is plentiful and of high standard, being composed of veterans of last week. The athletes from West Kentucky normal school are especially conspicuous."

TO GO 6 FEET DEEP, 15 FEET LATERALLY

At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 14.—To reach Floyd Collins, rescuers must go six feet deeper, then 15 feet laterally.

This should strike a point in Sand Cave's original entrance between Collins and the point where the walls swelled shut.

That is the latest strategy of H. T. Carmichael, superintendent. If workers thus strike the open crawlway they can proceed directly to Collins.

How long this task will take is now a matter of speculation.

Pitmen strove 9½ hours to advance three feet through the last layer of stone and dirt they encountered. If they chance upon a fissure their progress will be speeded considerably. Without the aid of a fissure they expect to reach Collins in 20 hours.

On the bottom of the shaft, 54 feet deep, Carmichael could hear the voices of men he had sent into the original crawlway.

Did that mean there is an open space between the shaft and Collins trap? Would voices carry through solid rock and dirt?

"We expect to strike the limestone roof of Collins' passageway within the next three feet," an official statement asserted. "Three feet below that we should break through into the cavern."

"Every successive development has borne out the accuracy of our survey," Carmichael said, "and there is every reason to believe our estimate is correct."

RESCUE WORKERS EXPECT SUCCESS SOON

At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 14.—Rescue workers are expecting momentarily to break through into a cavern that will lead to Floyd Collins' rock cell.

This was indicated when officials at 12:30 p. m. ordered anchoring of all timbers to prevent their falling into any opening that may be struck by the shaft which has now reached a depth of 55 feet toward the living tomb, where Collins has lain for 15 days.

Heavy cables were fastened about the lower ends of the timbering and secured to rocks across the shaft opening. Workers had expected to strike the limestone before now, and continuation of the muck and stone material caused this precaution to be taken.

Further auditory tests made in the choked passage into which Collins' crawled failed to reveal anything.

This information was contained in the official communique issued by officers in charge at 12:30 p. m.

The military inquiry will reassemble at the cave this afternoon. Adjutant General H. Keobe, adjutant general of Kentucky, arrived here this morning. It was expected he had merely dropped in on an inspection trip. Denhart was called out of bed at 3 a. m. today by W. J. Fields, governor of Kentucky. The purpose of the call was unknown.

BABY GIRL BORN TO THE LONGWORTHS TODAY

CHILD IS VERY WELL AND ACTIVE AND STARTED YELLING

(By United Press)
Chicago, Feb. 14.—A baby girl was born to Alice Roosevelt Longworth here today. The hospital announced both were in fine condition. The baby's weight was given as 8½ pounds.

The baby arrived 19 days ahead of time, according to Dr. DeLee. For this reason Longworth was not here today for the event. Word was sent to him at Washington. Longworth immediately started for Chicago. Mrs. Longworth's mother, Kermit Roosevelt, and Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the senator from Illinois, were at the hospital when the baby arrived.

"She looks like Teddy," Dr. DeLee remarked.

"The child is very well, active and strong and she started yelling."

STOCKINGS TO MATCH ALL YOUR SPRING AILMENTS

(By United Press)
Detroit, Feb. 14.—Stockings to match any ailment—bella-donna green, nuxvomica red, caffeine white, syrup or squill blue, balm of Gilead brown and mustard plaster pink—are being shown in hosiery shops for spring wear.

How pleasing it will be to Milady when she starts to choose between a digitalis hue or ipecacuanha remains to be seen; also whether a prescription will be necessary for such purchases.

Patrons of the shops have already found that apothecary shades predominate in spring wear. Pharmacists are reported considering the possibility of including hosiery in the already well-expanded drug store stock as they feel only through services of a registered druggist can proper advice be given as to appropriate shades for spring wear.

Imagine fashionable ladies peering critically through lorgnettes and murmuring—"which shall I take—that licorice yellow or the cassia acutifolia green?"

Or waste a moment conjuring on the possibilities when the shop girl struggles with the names of such stalwarts of the pharmaceutical world as rhubarb, anise, blue.

Old family remedies and cough syrups color are expected to gain most favor for street wear, while the elusive worded shades of exotic hue will be reserved for grand balls and dinner parties.

INFLUENZA EXACTS TOLL IN LONDON

76 DEATHS RECORDED, EPIDEMIC SWEEPS THROUGH ENGLAND, SCOTLAND

(By United Press)
London, Feb. 14.—With 76 deaths in London alone as its toll for the week, the influenza epidemic continues to spread through England and Scotland.

An interesting sidelight brought about by recurrence of the disease is the theory advanced by Commander J. Lindop in the British medical journal that flu germs thrown into the air by coughing enter through the eyes of surrounding persons. To combat spread of the epidemic Lindop advocates that all persons who travel in crowded conveyances use motor goggles. Even horn-rimmed glasses help, he said, to ward off the germs which are thrown into the air when a person coughs.

BOY RACED HIS DAD'S SEDAN THROUGH A TRAFFIC SIGNAL

(By United Press)
Columbus, O., Feb. 14.—Governor Vic Donahey, of Ohio, whose record for granting pardons to reform convicts was the principal attack of his opponent in last autumn's political campaign, allowed his own son to remain in jail today without extending executive clemency.

Hal Donahey, 18, was assigned to a cell in the city prison to serve a three-day sentence for racing his dad's big green sedan through a traffic signal on East Broad street near the executive mansion.

Judge E. W. Mahaffey of municipal court, who imposed the sentence, admitted that it was somewhat heavier than usual for such an offense, but pointed out that young Donahey had violated a domestic law as well as a city ordinance. At the executive mansion it was learned that the governor several weeks ago had told Hal he must stop driving the automobile.

Berlin, Feb. 14.—Gen. Von Ludendorff, quartermaster general of the Imperial German armies and since the war a leader of the agitation for return of a monarchy, resigned today from the leadership of the "Greater Germany's fascist liberty movement."

Adolph Hitler, notorious agitator and fascist leader, who recently was released from jail, will re-organize the movement.

WM. JARDINE NEW SEC'Y OF AGRICULTURE

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 14.—William Jardine of Kansas is appointed secretary of agriculture.

Appointment of William M. Jardine of Kansas to be secretary of agriculture was announced at the White House today. The nomination will be sent to the Senate this afternoon.

Jardine will succeed Secretary of Agriculture Gore, who retires March 4 to become governor of West Virginia. The new secretary was born on an Idaho ranch January 16, 1879. His early life was spent on the ranch in his home state and in Montana. Moving to Kansas, he became a member of several state agricultural boards and president of the State Agricultural Commission in 1918. For the past few months he has been a member of the president's agricultural relief commission.

Jardine Gets Leave of Absence

Topeka, Kansas, Feb. 14.—Governor Paulen indicated today he had no present intention of appointing a successor to Prof. W. M. Jardine, president of the Kansas Agricultural commission, just named secretary of agriculture by President Coolidge.

The governor contemplates granting an extended leave of absence to Jardine and the appointment of one of the deans of the college as acting head of the school.

FIREMAN KILLED AND TWO MILLION DAMAGE IN FIRE

AMERICAN ROYAL LIVESTOCK ARENA IN KANSAS CITY FIRE SWEEP

(By United Press)
Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 14.—One fireman was killed and more than $2,000,000 damage caused by a fire which swept through the American Royal Livestock arena housing Kansas City's annual automobile show early today.

Capt. John Crane, 65, the oldest captain in the fire department, was crushed beneath falling walls.

The fire, believed to have originated from defective wiring, started shortly after midnight, only a few minutes after thousands of motorist show visitors had left.

Three hundred and fifty automobiles, all latest models, were destroyed and only the burning walls of the $600,000 arena, home of the annual American Royal Livestock show, were left standing this morning.

The entire fire fighting force of both Kansas Cities fought the blaze for seven hours.

The automobile show was to have closed tonight.

EXTEND AUTO LICENSE TIME TILL MARCH 1

St. Paul, Feb. 14.—The state senate yesterday adopted by a majority vote the bill extending time of payment of automobile license fees this year to March 1.

The bill, amended in the senate to permit the use of 1924 licenses until April 15 instead of April 1, was returned to the house for action.

Inasmuch as the house originally passed the bill unanimously favorable action is expected.

Under the present laws Feb. 15 is the last day for the license fee payment.

U. S. EMERGES AS LOGICAL LEADER

ENGLAND UNEXPECTEDLY REJECTS GENEVA PROTOCOL

Geneva, Feb. 14.—The United States is emerging as the logical leader in the movement for international disarmament, as a result of England's unexpected rejection of the Geneva protocol now being discussed by England and her dominions.

England's inability to accept the protocol has caused no surprise in League of Nations circles and even the French delegates recognize the necessity of adapting themselves to the changing political situation, although they are supporting it in principle.

Under these circumstances the League of Nations council on March 9 is expected to take no action and important discussions will be postponed until the September assembly.

Sentiment here today indicates the Geneva protocols will then be re-drafted to deal only with arbitration, and separate conventions will be called.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—William D. Haywood, "Big Bill," leader of the I. W. W., who was sentenced to 20 years in prison and fined $10,000 in 1918 on a charge of obstructing the government's war activities, is being hunted in Chicago on a tip to federal authorities that he has returned from Russia. Haywood was one of the 92 wobblies sentenced by former Judge Landis. After a short time in jail Haywood was released on bonds of $30,000 supplied by William B. Lloyd, millionaire socialist, pending appeal of his sentence. The sentence was upheld, but when officers tried to find Haywood they found he had gone to Russia to serve as agent for the soviet government.

AIM TO UPSET HIGH LICENSE FEES FOR THE BUSES

St. Paul, Feb. 14.—Action to upset the Minnesota system of high license fees for busses was started in Hennepin county district court today. The action is being conducted by Floyd and Percy Raymond, proprietors of a transportation company. A writ of mandamus is sought to compel the secretary of state, Mike Holm, to license busses of the company at a rate lower than is provided by law. The law is discriminatory and infringes on the constitutional rights of the bus company, it is declared.

ATTORNEY TO FACE PUBLIC REPRIMAND BEFORE HIGH COURT

Minneapolis, Feb. 14.—For the first time in the history of Minnesota a lawyer has been ordered to appear before the state supreme court to be publicly reprimanded.

The lawyer is A. H. Karatz, 924 Metropolitan bank building, Minneapolis.

An order of the supreme court today suspended Mr. Karatz for six months because he gave a worthless check to the secretary of state in payment of an incorporation fee and neglected to remedy the matter for more than a year.

The check, for $175, covered costs of incorporation of the Independent Burlap Bag Co., of Minneapolis, and was issued in July, 1922.

The matter was called to the attention of the state board of law examiners and investigated by Judge J. W. Molyneux of Hennepin county court. Mr. Karatz claimed that he had acted in the matter merely as an accommodation to a friend.

HANGING FOR LEVYING WAR AGAINST STATE

SEVERE PENALTIES FOR ATTEMPTS TO OVERAWE GOV.—ERNOR-GENERAL

HEAVY FINE FOR FALSELY IMPERSONATING PRESIDENT OF FREE STATE

(By United Press)
Dublin, Feb. 14.—In a supreme effort to crush republican followers of Eamonn DeValera, leaders of the Irish Free State plan to introduce in the Dail the most sensational bill in Irish history. The bill would provide hanging for persons convicted of levying war against the Free State, harboring persons so engaged, or conspiring in any way to overthrow the government. A penalty of 20 years' imprisonment with a $2,500 fine would be inflicted on persons convicted of attempting by violence to overawe or intimidate the governor-general.

Five years' imprisonment with a $2,500 fine is provided for persons falsely representing themselves as president, vice-president or cabinet minister of the Free State government. This was a direct blow at DeValera.

HAYNES PLANNING BILLBOARD DRIVE AGAINST DRINKERS

Washington, Feb. 14.—They're going to shame the "scowflaws" into observing the dry laws.

And they'll do it with billboards. Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes intends to ask congress for a $50,000 appropriation for their erection throughout the country.

Picture a thirsty citizen barging along toward a "speakeasy," all set to irrigate his parched throat with a shot or two of "Oh-Be-Joyful."

Beyond the swinging doors he knows is quick relief. Suddenly he stops, trembling from head to foot. A sign has slapped him between the eyes. It reads:

"Naughty, Bad Scowflaw! Leave That Nasty Liquor Alone!"

And forthwith the thirsty one resolves, "Never Again."

At least that's what Commissioner Haynes hopes his signs will do.

"Many violate the prohibition laws because they don't realize what they are doing," the commissioner explains. "If their errors are only pointed out, I don't believe they will fall into them again."

"A well conducted advertising campaign would accomplish this. It would check potential violations."

"It would be carried on with placards and posters like those used in the Liberty Loan drives."

Heavy Steel Output

Preliminary information obtained by the state banking department was to the effect that the Atwater bank had depleted its reserve but there was apparently no reason for the closing of the Kandiyohi bank.

MINER TESTIFIES HE HEARD COLLINS GROAN

CAUSES A WAVE OF EXCITEMENT AT SAND CAVE

NEWSPAPER MEN BARRED FROM THE COURT MARTIAL HEARING

DEPTH OF SHAFT IS NOW 52 FEET TO THE TOP OF THE TIMBERING

At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 14.—Hope that Floyd Collins might be brought from the depths of Sand Cave alive ran high again over these bleak Kentucky hills today.

Cheered by the stories of miners who went into the cavern which Collins entered 15 days ago, skilled miners sinking the new shaft toward the entombed explorer hoped for his rescue at any time.

Miners who penetrated the cork-screw hold toward Collins' prison, said they distinctly heard a gasping groan from the entombed man. They made the statement under oath before the board of inquiry investigating rescue efforts. A shortcut to the cavern which would make unnecessary the long grind of drilling and drifting is expected to be uncovered today, H. T. Carmichael, in charge of digging operations, announced today.

A test drill eight feet from the shaft being sunk toward the rock prison of Collins revealed a cavity nine feet deep at the 60-foot level. The hole is only an inch in diameter, but Carmichael hopes it may be enlarged enough to admit a rescue party. Workers will widen it with dynamite if necessary. They hope the cavity will lead up to Collins' prison or possibly be the same one in which he lies. Collins, according to revised estimates, is almost on the same level with it.

Brigadier General H. H. Denhart, military commander, caused tremendous excitement late yesterday when he announced that Edwin Brenner, Cincinnati, had gone down the original tunnel choked near Collins' with fallen stones and had heard Collins gasp. Brenner, a former miner, volunteered for the work, Denhart said.

This caused the wave of excitement which swept the country around noon yesterday. An excited officer about this time ordered all workmen and newspaper men back from the pit and the rumor started that Collins had been saved.

Denhart announced later that the men had been ordered back so that Brenner, listening far below as he crawled through the barricaded cave could hear any possible sound from Collins.

Brenner's statement was read into the record of the court martial of inquiry into rescue work scandals which was being held today in a tent near the scene. A sentry paced before the door. Every outsider, including newspaper men, is excluded.

After a lengthy session late yesterday, Denhart called in the mining men and informed them of Brenner's discovery.

Officers of the inquiry announced themselves convinced that Collins lives.

The official communique issued early today reads:

"The depth of the shaft is 52 feet to the top of the timbering, leaving a three-foot section at the bottom to be timbered.

"The material we are now penetrating is limestone boulders and is very wet and slippery earth. We are experiencing considerable trouble with slides, necessitating the removal of one cubic yard of material to one three-foot section.

"Drilling the shaft at a depth of 71 feet, we found a limestone bottom after passing through six feet of loose mud and no further use for drilling was found. The limestone lies southwest, which is in our favor and is in accordance with calculations.

TO GO 6 FEET DEEP, 15 FEET LATERALLY

At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 14.—To reach Floyd Collins, rescuers must go six feet deeper, then 15 feet laterally.

This should strike a point in Sand Cave's original entrance between Collins and the point where the walls swelled shut.

That is the latest strategy of H. T. Carmichael, superintendent. If workers thus strike the open crawlway they can proceed directly to Collins.

How long this task will take is now a matter of speculation.

Pitmen strove 9½ hours to advance three feet through the last layer of stone and dirt they encountered. If they chance upon a fissure their progress will be speeded considerably. Without the aid of a fissure they expect to reach Collins in 20 hours.

On the bottom of the shaft, 54 feet deep, Carmichael could hear the voices of men he had sent into the original crawlway.

Did that mean there is an open space between the shaft and Collins trap? Would voices carry through solid rock and dirt?

"We expect to strike the limestone roof of Collins' passageway within the next three feet," an official statement asserted. "Three feet below that we should break through into the cavern."

"Every successive development has borne out the accuracy of our survey," Carmichael said, "and there is every reason to believe our estimate is correct."

RESCUE WORKERS EXPECT SUCCESS SOON

At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 14.—Rescue workers are expecting momentarily to break through into a cavern that will lead to Floyd Collins' rock cell.

This was indicated when officials at 12:30 p. m. ordered anchoring of all timbers, to prevent their falling into any opening that may be struck by the shaft which has now reached a depth of 55 feet toward the living tomb, where Collins has lain for 15 days.

Heavy cables were fastened about the lower ends of the timbering and secured to rocks across the shaft opening. Workers had expected to strike the limestone before now, and continuation of the muck and stone material caused this precaution to be taken.

Further auditory tests made in the choked passage into which Collins' crawled failed to reveal anything.

This information was contained in the official communique issued by officers in charge at 12:30 p. m.

The military inquiry will reassemble at the cave this afternoon. Adjutant General H. Keoke, adjutant general of Kentucky, arrived here this morning. It was expected he had merely dropped in on an inspection trip. Denhart was called out of bed at 3 a. m. today by W. J. Fields, governor of Kentucky. The purpose of the call was unknown.

Three hundred and fifty automobiles, all latest models, were destroyed and only the burning walls of the $600,000 arena, home of the annual American Royal Livestock show, were left standing this morning.

The entire fire fighting force of both Kansas Cities fought the blaze for seven hours.

The automobile show was to have closed tonight.

EXTEND AUTO LICENSE TIME TILL MARCH 1

St. Paul, Feb. 14.—The state senate yesterday adopted by a majority vote the bill extending time of payment of automobile license fees this year to March 1.

The bill, amended in the senate to permit the use of 1924 licenses until April 15 instead of April 1, was returned to the house for action.

Inasmuch as the house originally passed the bill unanimously favorable action is expected.

Under the present laws Feb. 15 is the last day for the license fee payment.

KELLOGG NOMINATION SENT TO SENATE

(By United Press) Washington, Feb. 14.—President Coolidge today sent to the Senate the nomination of Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota, now ambassador to Great Britain, to be secretary of state to succeed Charles Evans Hughes after March 4. He also sent the nomination of George Alexander Parks of Alaska to be governor of Alaska, succeeding Scott Bone.

U. S. EMERGES AS LOGICAL LEADER

ENGLAND UNEXPECTEDLY REJECTS GENEVA PROTOCOL

Geneva, Feb. 14.—The United States is emerging as the logical leader in the movement for international disarmament, as a result of England's unexpected rejection of the Geneva protocol now being discussed by England and her dominions.

England's inability to accept the protocol has caused no surprise in League of Nations circles and even the French delegates recognize the necessity of adapting themselves to the changing political situation, although they are supporting it in principle.

Under these circumstances the League of Nations council on March 9 is expected to take no action and important discussions will be postponed until the September assembly.

Sentiment here today indicates the Geneva protocols will then be re-drafted to deal only with arbitration, and separate conventions will be called.

JAPAN VISITED BY EARTHQUAKE, NO FATALITIES

(By United Press)

Tokio, Feb. 14.—A severe earthquake shock at 9:40 a. m. today sent inhabitants of Mayebashi dashing into the streets to avoid injury by falling structures. There were no fatalities. In Tokio only a very slight tremor was felt.

Mayebashi, a silk manufacturing center, is on the main island, 70 miles northwest of Tokio.

(By United Press)

Winona, Minn., Feb. 14.—Mrs. John Lewinsky, 41, weighing 427 pounds, died here during childbirth. She was the heaviest woman in Minnesota.

"BIG BILL" HAYWOOD MAY BE IN CHICAGO

(By United Press)

Chicago, Feb. 14.—William D. Haywood, "Big Bill," leader of the I. W. W. who was sentenced to 20 years in prison and fined $10,000 in 1918 on a charge of obstructing the government's war activities, is being hunted in Chicago on a tip to federal authorities that he has returned from Russia.

Haywood was one of the 92 wobblies sentenced by former Judge Landis. After a short time in jail Haywood was released on bonds of $30,000 supplied by William B. Lloyd, millionaire socialist, pending appeal of his sentence. The sentence was upheld, but when officers tried to find Haywood they found he had gone to Russia to serve as agent for the soviet government.

AIM TO UPSET HIGH LICENSE FEES FOR THE BUSESSES

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Feb. 14.—Action to upset the Minnesota system of high license fees for busses was started in Hennepin county district court today. The action is being conducted by Floyd and Percy Raymond, proprietors of a transportation company. A writ of mandamus is sought to compel the secretary of state, Mike Holm, to license busses of the company at a rate lower than is provided by law. The law is discriminatory and infringes on the constitutional rights of the bus company, it is declared.

ATTORNEY TO FACE PUBLIC REPRIMAND BEFORE HIGH COURT

Minneapolis, Feb. 14.—For the first time in the history of Minnesota a lawyer has been ordered to appear before the state supreme court to be publicly reprimanded.

The lawyer is A. H. Karatz, 924 Metropolitan bank building, Minneapolis.

An order of the supreme court today suspended Mr. Karatz for six months because he gave a worthless check to the secretary of state in payment of an incorporation fee and neglected to remedy the matter for more than a year.

The check, for $175, covered costs of incorporation of the Independent Burlap Bag Co. of Minneapolis, and was issued in July, 1922.

The matter was called to the attention of the state board of law examiners and investigated by Judge J. W. Molyneux of Hennepin county court. Mr. Karatz claimed that he had acted in the matter merely as an accommodation to a friend.

HANGING FOR LEVYING WAR AGAINST STATE

SEVERE PENALTIES FOR ATTEMPTS TO OVERAWE GOVERNOR-GENERAL

HEAVY FINE FOR FALSELY IMPERSONATING PRESIDENT OF FREE STATE

(By United Press)

Dublin, Feb. 14.—In a supreme effort to crush republican followers of Eamonn DeValera, leaders of the Irish Free State plan to introduce in the Dail the most sensational bill in Irish history. The bill would provide hanging for persons convicted of levying war against the Free State, harboring persons so engaged, or conspiring in any way to overthrow the government. A penalty of 20 years' imprisonment with a $2,500 fine would be inflicted on persons convicted of attempting by violence to overawe or intimidate the governor-general.

Five years' imprisonment with a $2,500 fine is provided for persons falsely representing themselves as president, vice-president or cabinet minister of the Free State government. This was a direct blow at DeValera.

HAYNES PLANNING BILLBOARD DRIVE AGAINST DRINKERS

Washington, Feb. 14.—They're going to shame the "scofflaws" into observing the dry laws.

And they'll do it with billboards. Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes intends to ask congress for a $50,000 appropriation for their erection throughout the country.

Picture a thirsty citizen barging along toward a "speakeasy," all set to irrigate his parched throat with a shot or two of "Oh-Be-Joyful."

Beyond the swinging doors he knows is quick relief. Suddenly he stops, trembling from head to foot. A sign has slapped him between the eyes. It reads:

"Naughty, Bad Scofflaw! Leave That Nasty Liquor Alone!"

And forthwith the thirsty one resolves, "Never Again."

At least that's what Commissioner Haynes hopes his signs will do.

"Many violate the prohibition laws because they don't realize what they are doing," the commissioner explains. "If their errors are only pointed out, I don't believe they will fall into them again."

"A well conducted advertising campaign would accomplish this. It would check potential violations."

"It would be carried on with placards and posters like those used in the Liberty Loan drives."

Heavy Steel Output

(By United Press)

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Night and day shifts, overtime employment and orders that are taxing the capacity of the mills mean a production of 450,000 to 500,000 tons of rail steel reinforcing bars in 1925. This is the forecast just made by the Rail Steel Products association. Production is expected to double the tonnage of last year.

Two Banks Close Doors

St. Paul, Feb. 14.—The First National Bank of Atwater, in Kandiyohi, closed its doors today.

Almost at the same hour the Farmers State Bank of Kandiyohi, near Atwater, closed its doors.

State bank examiners are on their way to both towns to investigate. Henry Steen is president of both banks.

Preliminary information obtained by the state banking department was to the effect that the Atwater bank had depleted its reserve but there was apparently no reason for the closing of the Kandiyohi bank.

GRAND COUNCIL
OFFICERS HERE

Official Party Led by Grand Counselor Henry C. Casper of St. Paul

U. C. T. INITIATION TONIGHT

Grand Officers Will Form a Special Degree Team For Occasion

Grand Counselor Henry C. Casper of St. Paul was the first to arrive to attend the United Commercial Travelers celebration this evening. Other members of his party arrived today on trains and busses and include E. F. Yates, of Minneapolis, Grand Junior Counselor; A. E. Fritz, of St. Cloud, Grand Chaplain; Mortimer Sherod, of St. Paul, Past Senior Counselor.

These officers will constitute a special team putting on the initiation tonight and a large class will be instructed and initiated. Brainerd Council now has a membership of fifty and with the class estimated will total over 60.

"I remember my first visit in Brainerd," said Casper, in a reminiscent mood. "It was 48 years ago and I notice quite a difference in the town. Just previous to my visit they hanged several half breeds."

"Indians were bringing in blueberries in blankets and Brainerd was a great shipping point for the crop," continued Mr. Casper.

The official party spent the day visiting around Brainerd and stirred up interest in the membership campaign.

This is Mr. Yates' first visit in Brainerd and he was pleased with the city and its environment. It had an air of prosperity and progress, which pleased him exceedingly. Mr. Yates was glad to see that Brainerd "had been set right" and that the radio magazine article had been shown up as entirely unwarranted.

Mr. Sherod is an old printer, and felt thoroughly at home when he came into the Dispatch offices.

The big time at the Council starts at 7:30 o'clock this evening, and includes initiation, big supper and a social hour.

WHAT A YOUNG MAN CONSIDERS AN IDEAL GIRL

YOUNG men have various ideas as to what constitutes their ideal girl. Dr. Harry Noble Wilson, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of St. Paul, has seriously taken up the question, sent a questionnaire to 200 young men of St. Paul and has cataloged and condensed their replies. All the material gained he will expound in a sermon at his church. It is the third of a series on marriage.

That the pastor went into the subject most thoroughly is evidenced by the interrogations sent out, which included these:

In choosing her (your wife) how much will you be influenced by her personal appearance?

What kind of training should she have had?

What attention should she pay to dress and prevailing extremes of fashion?

What qualities in her will appeal most to you?

What imperfections in her will be the hardest for you to overlook?

About what age should she be?

Do you demand for her the same standard of morals as your own?

Should she be interested in political, church and social life, or devote herself exclusively to the home?

Should she have had contact with modern life as a business or professional woman or be unacquainted with the world's ways?

Must she be a Christian?

This is such a list of searching questions that one wonders what the girl may ask of her prospective husband in the way of qualifications.

THEY HAVE A NICE OBITUARY

THE Northern News comments this way about a man who came in and stopped his paper the other day, because they did not mention his name often enough, and so the News made itself a committee of one to investigate.

"The first thing that had ever happened to him was that he was born, and that had been mentioned, even though he had nothing to do with it, and if any credit was due, it was due to his parents.

"When he was a young man, he was married and we mentioned his name, the bride's name, the preacher, and all about it, except the preacher's fee, and that wasn't worth mentioning.

"We never mentioned about his winning any prizes at the fair, as he never exhibited anything. Nor was his name listed on any committees of the Red Cross, church or societies, as he never attended anything.

"If there was a list of anything being donated to a worthy cause, his name was not among the donors, as he never donated even a doughnut. It is true, his name has not been mentioned as often as others in the paper, but we have a nice obituary to run."

ROTARY AT HIBBING

HIBBING is making preparations for one of the greatest Rotary conventions ever held in the ninth district. The "town is yours" is the slogan adopted. That means that nothing in Hibbing is too good for the Rotarian.

The ore capital is taking measures to house 2,000 or more people. People know what Hibbing can do. A short time ago they entertained the Elks state convention, provided a wonderful program and all Hibbing joined in the hospitality extended.

Hibbing expects large delegations of Rotarians from North Dakota, Minnesota and Superior, Wisconsin. An effort is being made to have Brainerd Rotary attend 100 per cent. The trip is easily made by automobile from Brainerd and roads at that time in spring should be in good condition, as they are graveled and paved roads the whole distance.

SPRING HERE IN SPOTS

EVIDENCES of spring are reported in various towns. Brainerd subscriber of the Dispatch brought in a husky caterpillar which was sunning itself outdoors.

Wood cutters on lands close to the frozen Red River of the North report that a number of robins remained in the woods all winter. They seem to be thriving.

A small flock of grosbeaks has arrived in Marshfield, Wis., and taken up temporary quarters in trees on a Marshfield lawn. Bird lovers say they are on their way up north, as they do not nest in the vicinity. Heretofore they have never arrived until some period in March.

THE proposed reorganization of the state government does not meet with favor in all sections. Senator F. E. Putnam of Blue Earth, one of the oldest lawyers in the senate, claims the proposed code would make the governor virtually a czar. And then his own committee associate of the senate committee on civil administration claims this feature of the bill is a good one because it fixes the responsibility for any official's acts in the governor.

It costs something to remain an amateur. It is said Nurmi, whose running is enriching the coffers of track meet promoters, could have made some $200,000 to date if he had changed to professional and also drawn his share or percentage of the stories written of his performances and records. When the Finnish runner came to America he traveled in steerage.

JUST after we did a deal of financing we raised our automobile license tax and sent it in, figuring it would just get under the wire February 15, and then we read in the morning paper that the house and senate had concurred in extending the time of payment to March 1.

WRITING humorous stuff must pay, as Ring Lardner is able to make a tour of Europe. No doubt he will visit all the crowned heads.

ED L. SHAVE, sports editor of the St. Paul Daily News, considers the world's two greatest Finns as being Nurmi and Huckleberry.

NEW BOOKINGS AT
LYCEUM THEATRE

Latest Metro-Goldwyn And Fox Productions Get Early Showing

SPECIAL MUSIC SCORES

Arranged by Miss Meta Crawford, Organist of the Lyceum

Local theatre-goers are sure of a continuous flow of fine screen entertainment at the Lyceum, judging from the list of new bookings just received by Manager Hiller, who always insists that his patrons be given the latest and best pictures the market affords at popular prices. The Lyceum policy always has been one that has met with the approval of the public and with the following line-up of pictures it is going to bring forth new raise from local theatre-goers.

The first of special notice on the list is Rupert Hughes' famous Comedy, "Excuse Me," which will be presented this Sunday and Monday at the Lyceum. This is a new Metro Goldwyn special, featuring two of the most popular stars of the screen, Norma Shearer and Conrad Nagel, who portray the newlyweds on their honeymoon. While this picture has not as yet been shown in the Twin Cities, reports from the East claim that it is one of the best comedies of the season and is a scream from start to finish.

On next Tuesday and Wednesday the Lyceum offers the great racing picture entitled the "Dixie Handicap," another one of the late Metro Goldwyn specials, starring Claire Windsor and Frank Kenan. Following that comes Fred Thompson, the new Western star in "North of Nevada" and Betty Compson in "Ramshackle House."

Owing to the Firemen's benefit show on Monday and Tuesday, February 23rd and 24th, the Betty Compson picture will be shown only one day, Sunday, February 22nd.

Others to follow are: Shirley Mason in "The French Lady" and the "The Roughneck," a thrilling play of the South Seas, by Robert W. Service, author of "The Spell of the Yukon." Here is a film that is going to cause great comment. It is a big Wm. Fox special and will be shown on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 26th and 27th at popular prices.

One of the most important bookings for March will be "Janice Meredith" featuring Marion Davies. This great twelve reel super-special comes to the Lyceum on March 1st and 2nd. It was recently shown at the New Lyceum in Minneapolis for two solid weeks and practically every educational society in the Cities praised it to the skies. It is American to the core. One of the many great scenes shown in "Janice Meredith" is that of Washington crossing the Delaware.

Later will come Tom Mix and Tony his horse, in their first new 1935 special entitled "Oh You Tony." It is in seven reels and reports are that it is immense. Other March bookings include the big nine reel Fox special entitled "The Man Who Came Back" with George O'Brien, "The Beauty Prize" with Viola Dana, "The Cyclone Rider" by Lincoln J. Carter, "Gerald Granston's Lady," by Gilbert Frankau, Jackie Coogan in "The Rag Man," his latest; also the well-known stage success "Cheaper to Marry"; "The Great Divide"; "Chu Chin Chow"; and "The Merry Widow." Tom Mix will soon be coming in "Dick Turpin," the greatest and best picture Mix has ever made; also "Riders of the Purple Sage," by Zane Grey; Buster Keaton in "Seven Chances" and James Oliver Curwood's novel, "The Hunted Woman." The Lyceum slogan is "always a good show" and it is believed the above pictures corroborate this statement.

Miss Meta Crawford, the talented little organist, will preside at the Wurlitzer and is now arranging new and appropriate musical scores for the Lyceum program.

HOGAN SPEAKS TO BOYOLGY CLASS

Rev. James Hogan outlined very clearly a Scoutmaster's duty in his relation to the community and his duties as Scoutmaster in relation to the boy. He spoke of the opportunities which a Scoutmaster has in directing the activities of the boy toward the finer things of life in preference to allowing those activities which are not wholesome become a part of the junior citizen's life. He stated that many troops were connected with church activities and that the boy's life should not be devoid in his daily activities or allow him to forget his real purpose in life. The Scoutmaster was advised not to attempt teaching theology or doctrine but should call upon the leader of the church in which the troop was situated to look after this work.

Father Hogan stated many things which did give the Scoutmasters a lasting impression of the immensity of his job. A discussion was held on troop management and patrol leadership under the direction of Training Scoutmaster A. Haagle. Reference was made to the English Scoutmaster being able to look after a very large troop with only the assistance of a

If Mozart could hear "The Magic Flute" on a FADA Neutrodyne

—his trained ear would approve the tonal fidelity to the original in his famous old opera. The peculiar charm of this woodwind instrument is caught in all its purity by the famous Fada Neutrodyne. With equal tonal truth, Fada reproduces the deep rolling bass of the pipe-organ.

The Fada Neutrodyne has the range of the 88-key piano-forte. McCormack's pure tenor, Bori's delicious soprano, create the illusion of standing beside the actual artists when you hear them on a Fada set. Bass and baritone voices are reproduced with equal fidelity. Nor does Fada create those raucous distortions that have kept many discriminating folks from investing in radio.

HOGAN SPEAKS TO BOYOLGY CLASS

Rev. James Hogan, outlined very clearly a Scoutmaster's duty in his relation to the community and his duties as Scoutmaster in relation to the boy. He spoke of the opportunities which a Scoutmaster has in directing the activities of the boy toward the finer things of life in preference to allowing those activities which are not wholesome become a part of the junior citizen's life. He stated that many troops were connected with church activities and that the boy's life should not be devoid in his daily activities or allow him to forget his real purpose in life. The Scoutmaster was advised not to attempt teaching theology or doctrine but should call upon the leader of the church in which the troop was situated to look after this work.

Father Hogan stated many things which did give the Scoutmasters a lasting impression of the immensity of his job. A discussion was held on troop management and patrol leadership under the direction of Training Scoutmaster A. Haagle. Reference was made to the English Scoutmaster being able to look after a very large troop with only the assistance of a

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS DISPLAY HANDICRAFT

Troops Nos. 1 and 5 of Brainerd are displaying articles of troop handicraft at DeSmids, John M. Bye Clothing Company and the Peterson Clothing Company windows.

The DeSmidt window shows a very high grade piece of work on the part of several Scouts in making up knots. The board shows very distinctly the amount of effort that has been expended in the work. There are also samples of the construction of fires relating to the wood craft test. A miniature camp is displayed, the approach being made over a miniature log bridge which is a model of part of the handicraft merit badge. The bridge is made by Scout Dale Saunders. The entire display is made under the direction of Mr. A. Haagle, Scoutmaster of Troop No. 1.

The window at the John M. Bye Clothing Company shows keenly the work of the boys of Troop No. 5 under the direction of Dr. K. H. Hoorn, Scoutmaster of the Congregational Troop. Among the articles on display is a bird house constructed as part of the nature study work on birds. The knot board of this troop is a good specimen of handicraft. The boys are to be congratulated in their efforts to display these articles of handicraft during anniversary week.

The window at the Peterson Clothing Company was trimmed with Scout material in commemoration of the week. The knot board in this display is the property of Troop No. 2 from Crosby. It is an excellent specimen in this class of work.

Large and Small Counties

San Bernardino county, California, is the largest in the United States, with an area of 20,775 square miles, and Bristol county, Rhode Island, with an area of 24 square miles, is the smallest.

Would Give New Light

If ideas and words were distinctly weighed and duly considered, they would afford us another sort of logic and criteria than what we have been hitherto acquainted with.

"I know good citizens without number will come out of Scout ranks to counsel and serve the country we love."
WOODROW WILSON,
Second Honorary President, B. S. of A.

"The trees and forests have no better friend than the Boy Scouts of America, which teaches reverence for Nature's handiwork and inspires active service in its protection and conservation."
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Chairman, The President's Committee on Outdoor Recreation.

"Comradeship between father and boy is one of the finest results that the Scout Movement is accomplishing. Scouting is a healthful pathway along which thousands of understanding fathers are leading their sons to splendid manhood."
E. LEE TRINKLE,
Governor of Virginia.

WHAT LOCAL MEN SAY ABOUT SCOUTING

I think Scouting is a very good thing for the boys, and under proper management, ought to prove very successful in Brainerd.
The boys should take to it.
REV. JAMES HOGAN.

The Boy Scout movement is one of the best movements in our community. It is one of the best movements ever started anywhere in that it will eventually turn out good citizens from many homes where things up-lifting have very little sway.
P. L. HALENBECK, M. D.

I believe in the Boy Scout movement because it gives every boy an opportunity to develop the best which he has within himself.
WM. HAYDON.

The future of America depends entirely on its boys of today. I believe in the Boy Scout movement because it assists in building our future citizens, mentally, morally and physically.
WALTER WIELAND.

Boy scout work solves the Juvenile Court's biggest problem—the mischievous but not bad boy. It diverts surplus energy into worthy channels.
L. B. KINDER.

I wish to say that I consider the Boy Scout movement of America as one of the finest movements that has been devised from any source for the direction of the boy's life from ages of twelve to eighteen. It is a strong auxiliary of the church in building an excellent manhood. It gives a practical turn to the boys mind, teaches him mastery of himself and mastery of nature and supplies a splendid outlet for his energies.
While we recognize that it is not all the training a boy needs from childhood up, it supplements at a critical time in his life the work of other agencies.
E. A. COOKE.

If all the young boys in Brainerd would affiliate with the Boy Scouts and live up to the regulations and laws governing same, I believe their manhood would have a bright future.
W. A. M. JOHNSTONE.

But that side of scouting is merely the filler to the real scout work—as the unenriching pumpkin to the pie, the sawdust to the dynamite! The real work that the Boy Scout organization does is in the development of character, through instilling the fundamental principles of honesty, industry and thrift.

Of course, there are certain benefits that inevitably go along with the character building. A boy learns to be at ease with other boys—to take his bumps, (and to return them), without malice or meanness. This makes him at ease with men. He learns a sober respect for his mother and his girl friends, and this gives him a certain natural polish, that we fathers and mothers of boys like to see in our own boys, and that we fathers and mothers of girls like to see in our girls', boys. This may be compared to the tender crust and spices that come with the pumpkin pie and the pretty paper wrapping on the dynamite.

But the real value, the real power, the real service, of the Boy Scouts of America, is the building of Character in boys, through instilling in them the principles of Honesty, Industry and Thrift.

On October 7, 1919, his Holiness the late Pope Benedict IV approved the "Promotion of the Boy Scout program under Catholic Leadership" among boys.

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS DISPLAY HANDICRAFT

Troops Nos. 1 and 5 of Brainerd are displaying articles of troop handicraft at DeSmids, John M. Bye Clothing Company and the Peterson Clothing Company windows.

The DeSmids window shows a very high grade piece of work on the part of several Scouts in making up knots. The board shows very distinctly the amount of effort that has been expended in the work. There are also samples of the construction of fires relating to the wood craft test. A miniature camp is displayed, the approach being made over a miniature log bridge which is a model of part of the handicraft merit badge.

The bridge is made by Scout Dale Saunders. The entire display is made under the direction of Mr. A. Haagle, Scoutmaster of Troop No. 1.

The window at the John M. Bye Clothing Company shows keenly the work of the boys of Troop No. 5 under the direction of Dr. K. H. Hoorn, Scoutmaster of the Congregational Troop. Among the articles on display is a bird house constructed as part of the nature study work on birds. The knot board of this troop is a good specimen of handicraft.

The boys are to be congratulated in their efforts to display these articles of handicraft during anniversary week.

The window at the Peterson Clothing Company was trimmed with Scout material in commemoration of the week. The knot board in this display is the property of Troop No. 2 from Crosby. It is an excellent specimen in this class of work.

Would Give New Light

If ideas and words were distinctly weighed and duly considered, they would afford us another sort of logic and critic than what we have been hitherto acquainted with.

"I know good citizens without number will come out of Scout ranks to counsel and serve the country we love."

WOODROW WILSON.

Second Honorary President, B. S. of A.

"The trees and forests have no better friend than the Boy Scouts of America, which teaches reverence for Nature's handiwork and inspires active service in its protection and conservation."

Where to Worship Sunday

First Methodist Church

Services Sunday, February 15th, will be as follows: Morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. This service is worshipful and inspirational. Good music assists the worship and helps the congregation to realize the purpose of this hour. The pastor will bring the message.

The church school at twelve o'clock. This school is doing splendid work this year. It needs the co-operation of every parent as well as every teacher and scholar to bring it to its highest efficiency and that it may serve us as it is expected to do.

The Sunday evening service will be of a unique nature. This congregation will turn winter into summer in this service hour. The church will be decorated with everything suggestive of summer. Camp Fire

Girls will usher, dressed in their summer uniforms. The whole atmosphere, as far as can be created, will be such to help us forget winter and feel that we have entered into summer. This whole setting will help in bringing the gospel message of the hour. There will be a good song service with quartette and solo numbers. The whole hour is to be evangelistic in its message. Come and enjoy these splendid Sunday evening services.

The church night service of this church is held Thursday at 6:30 o'clock, beginning with supper and followed by devotional hour.

KAPPA DELPHIAN CHAPTER

Meet February 21 to Acquaint Themselves With Details of Greek Mythology

(Contributed)

The Kappa Delphian Chapter will meet February 21 to further acquaint themselves with the details of Greek mythology.

The importance of this subject, however cannot be too often called to mind, for without some understanding of Greek history it is not possible to comprehend modern civilization. Among the Greeks modern civilization had its beginnings. 'Among the myths' we gather an understanding of the general spirit of ancient civilization.

Miss Anna LeMay will lead in the discussion with the following text reports being given special attention.

Hestia Persephone—Mrs. Lammon.

Dionysius Pan—Mrs. Newman.

Water Deities—Mrs. Moulster.

Winds and their children—Mrs. Rasch.

Divinitus of Hades—Mrs. Hayes.

Orpheus, Nemesis—Miss McKay.

First Methodist Church
Services Sunday, February 15th, will be as follows: Morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. This service is worshipful and inspirational. Good music assists the worship and helps the congregation to realize the purpose of this hour. The pastor will bring the message.

The church school at twelve o'clock. This school is doing splendid work this year. It needs the co-operation of every parent as well as every teacher and scholar to bring it to its highest efficiency and that it may serve us as it is expected to do.
The Sunday evening service will be of a unique nature. This congregation will turn winter into summer in this service hour. The church will be decorated with everything suggestive of summer. Camp Fire son underneath.

Girls will usher, dressed in their summer uniforms. The whole atmosphere, as far as can be created, will be such to help us forget winter and feel that we have entered into summer. This whole setting will help in bringing the gospel message of the hour. There will be a good song service with quartette and solo numbers. The whole hour is to be evangelistic in its message. Come and enjoy these splendid Sunday evening services.

The church night service of this church is held Thursday at 6:30 o'clock, beginning with supper and followed by devotional hour.
E. A. Cooke, Minister.

KAPPA DELPHIAN CHAPTER

Meet February 21 to Acquaint Themselves With Details of Greek Mythology

(Contributed)

The Kappa Delphian Chapter will meet February 21 to further acquaint themselves with the details of Greek mythology.

The importance of this subject, however cannot be too often called to mind, for without some understanding of Greek history it is not possible to comprehend modern civilization. Among the Greeks modern civilization had its beginnings. 'Among the myths' we gather an understanding of the general spirit of ancient civilization.

Miss Anna LeMay will lead in the discussion with the following text reports being given special attention:
Hestia Persephone—Mrs. Lammon.
Dionysius Pan—Mrs. Newman.
Water Deities—Mrs. Moulster.
Winds and their children—Mrs. Rasch.

Divinitus of Hades—Mrs. Hayes.
Orpheus, Nemesis—Miss McKay.

Bad People Not So Plenty

I have heard all my days warning of bad men and women, but known few; and I have reached three-score and ten. I have traveled far, and haven't much farther to go, but upon my honor the rarest thing I know is a completely bad man or woman.—E. W. Howe, the Atchison Globe Man, in Collier's.

Liquor Charges Before Judge J. H. Warner at Morning Session

ONE CASE IS DISMISSED

Quick Disposition Made of Other Cases Including Alleged Unclean Milk, Etc.

In municipal court David Le Doux and William Leese were arraigned on a state charge of transporting liquor, were given an examination and held to the action of the district court. Bonds in each case were fixed at $150.

Mike Latinovich, charged with manufacturing liquor, was given an examination and the case dismissed. Charles Gunion, arraigned on a state charge of maintaining a liquor nuisance, plead guilty and was fined $100 or 90 days in jail.

Louis Bourassa, charged with the sale of unclean milk, was arraigned and plead guilty. He was fined $20 and given a stay of sentence until March 2nd.

J. A. Clifton plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery and was fined $15.

M. G. Grenlow and H. A. Haynes each plead guilty to charges of maintaining nuisances, and were each fined $100 or 90 days in jail.

HOW "AMERICA" WAS MADE

Daughters of American Revolution Suggested Griffith Make a Film of Revolutionary War

The romance of one hundred and ten million people—that is the story of "America," which many critics now declare is greater than Mr. Griffith's earlier picture, "The Birth of a Nation."

Several years ago, Mr. Griffith began planning an elaborate and accurate film story of the American Revolution; but at that time, so-called costume plays were not popular.

In May, 1923, the Daughters of the American Revolution addressed a letter to the motion picture industry, inquiring why a film of the Revolutionary War had not been undertaken, and suggesting it should not be delayed.

Will Hays received the letter and asked Mr. Griffith to undertake the work.

Before doing it, he made a secret trip to Boston, visiting all the shrines of patriotism in that vicinity. He went to the Old North Church, motored along the ride that Paul Revere made, crossed the bridge at Concord and lay on the bank in the hot spring sun for more than an hour directly where "the shot heard round the world" was fired.

He first took the ride of Paul Revere, a brief incident in the story but one that required three weeks to film.

Mr. Griffith then took his players to Lexington for scenes at the old Clark home, showing Hancock and Adams arriving and leaving there. This is the same house that sheltered them in 1775.

The scenes shown in the picture are actual photographs of the Old North church which stands exactly as it did when Paul Revere received his alarm.

Scenes in Yorktown, on the actual site where Cornwallis surrendered to George Washington's army, were secured with the co-operation of G. Watson James Jr., National Historian of the Sons of the Revolution.

Returning to Washington, the War Department permitted Col. Hamilton Hawkins to aid Mr. Griffith with the crack Third U. S. Cavalry at Ft. Myer, Va., in scenes as Morgan's Rangers. Major J. M. Wainwright commanded the troop and took part in the action, dressing in fur-trimmed buckskin with his troopers to make the actual charges of the Rangers securely true in reproduction for the film.

Showing at the New Park on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at regular prices.

PHONE SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

Brainerd Exchange of Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. Conducts School

RURAL LINES CONSIDERED

Linemen and Officers of Ten Companies Were Present at First School Held

The Brainerd exchange of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., is conducting a series of schools of instruction for rural telephone companies operating out of the city. The first of these meetings was held on Friday at which linemen and officers of ten of the rural companies were present. The meetings will be continued at intervals throughout February and March.

The purpose of these schools of instruction is to assist the rural telephone companies to maintain better service on their lines. The subjects discussed and demonstrated are poor transmission and its remedy, care and maintenance of telephone instruments and lines, and the proper use of the telephone. Julius Viken, wire chief of the local exchange, is in charge of this school, which is being held without charge to those who attend.

There are 52 rural telephone lines running out of the Brainerd exchange, and the linemen and officers of these lines are to be invited to attend the school of instruction in small groups.

All of the rural companies who have been approached on the matter are very enthusiastic over the school, and appreciate very much this action on the part of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co.

MISS EFFIE GREEN DIED

Cousin of Mrs. G. A. Rose of Brainerd Succumbed in Stillwater to Paralysis

The Stillwater Gazette has the following account of one of its pioneer residents, who is also related to Mrs. G. A. Rose, of Brainerd:

Never regaining consciousness, Miss Effie Green, aged 67 years, died on Saturday evening at six o'clock at Lakeview Memorial hospital from the results of a stroke of paralysis Tuesday evening, January 27th, and exposure.

The body was taken to Hudson, Wis., and funeral services conducted from the Lakeland Congregational church, which she faithfully served in various capacities for years.

Returning from a church convention in St. Paul Tuesday night, the aged lady was stricken as she entered the door of her home. She was found by neighbors the next afternoon in an unconscious state and with a portion of her feet and one hand frozen.

Miss Green has lived in Lakeland practically her entire lifetime. She was born in this city, the daughter of A. B. Green, one of the early pioneers who was a river captain, a minister and sheriff of the county. The family removed to Lakeland when Miss Effie was very young.

The community of Lakeland and those who have the pleasure of Miss Green's acquaintance mourn her death. With her passing there is lost to the community a woman of sterling qualities and good Christian character, who was held in high esteem by both old and young.

Miss Green is survived by an aged aunt, of Lakeland, Mrs. Mary H. Oliver, 91 years of age on next March 8th; three nieces, and scores of cousins, one of whom is Mrs. Rose of Brainerd.

OPTIMISTIC OVER BUSINESS OUTLOOK

H. F. Michael Returns From Dry Goods Markets Purchasing Spring Lines

COMMENTS ON CHICAGO

Decided Change in Spring Styles, New Shades Are Most Attractive

H. F. Michael has returned from the dry goods markets where he has been in the interests of the spring lines of the H. F. Michael Co. He states that he visited with many merchants and all express a most optimistic view of business conditions for this year, but that there was a decided feeling that anything resembling a boom should be avoided. They all want to see and expect to see a sane, gradual returning to a more prosperous condition.

As evidence of the expectation of the future, says Mr. Michael, are two unusual hotel projects under way in down-town Chicago, the new hotel Palmer, now under construction which will contain 3,200 rooms, and the Morison hotel, which will have 3,400 rooms when completed.

Regarding styles, Mr. Michael stated that "There is a decided change in the styles" for spring, which is adding a great interest to ready-to-wear garments. Particularly are the new shades attractive, for if ever there were to be brilliant colors worn, it should be this spring.

"The garment which is receiving the greatest attention is the ensemble suit. This is by far the most practical and most beautiful garment of its kind shown in many seasons, and predictions are that it will have a greater popularity than any similar garment brought out in many seasons."

Mr. Michael further states that a new merchandising era has arrived, which is characterized by merchants carrying smaller stocks, but with more constant receipts of new goods. To accomplish this, he states that he has made arrangements whereby the H. F. Michael Co. has joined a merchandise buying syndicate, which not only will secure frequent shipments of the newest merchandise, but as its purchasing power is in the millions, it will insure lower prices on the merchandise.

Mr. Michael continued, "I am back not only to make our store a stronger institution, than it ever has been, but to continue it an integral part of the community, serving it not only directly but indirectly in every way possible, to make Brainerd a bigger and better place in which to live."

Nelsen-Bushway

Miss Marie Bushway and Charlie Nelsen were united in marriage on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. Father James Hogan performing the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bushway, and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Nelsen.

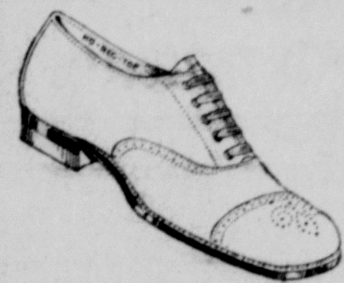

The happy couple will make their home in Brainerd.

Plans Formulated for Organization of Chapter in Near Future

HENRY I. COHEN CHAIRMAN

Associates A. A. Gieriet, George E. Lowe, Clyde E. Parker, W. R. Hiller, W. E. Paul

Plans are going forward rapidly for the organization of an Izaak Walton League in Brainerd, and it is hoped to have the Brainerd chapter well under way in a short time.

The committee in charge of this movement consists of Henry I. Cohen, chairman, A. A. Gieriet, George E. Lowe, Clyde E. Parker, W. R. Hiller and W. E. Paul.

A number of committee meetings have already been held and about thirty members secured. Around this as a nucleus, it is expected that a large organization will be built.

The committee explains that the Izaak Walton League is not intended to take the place of any other sportsman's organization, but will in any way hinder the work of such organizations. On the contrary one of its missions will be that of rendering every assistance possible.

The Izaak Walton League is a national organization, and one that is a very powerful asset to every community, because of its country-wide membership and its large scope of activities.

It is the hope of the committee that Brainerd citizens will get behind this movement and assist to make the local chapter a large and prosperous one, a power for good in this community.

Revolutionary Advance in Driving Vision

Overland's adoption of all-steel bodies is admittedly one of the most important advances ever made in the low-priced field. Sales of the new Overland all-steel Sedan are literally pyramiding. People are keenly aware of the advantages of steel construction—particularly the greatly increased range of driving vision.

Besides its all-steel body, the Overland Sedan gives you bigger power . . . patented Triplex Springs . . . stronger axles . . . bigger propeller shaft . . . balanced crankshaft . . . bigger brakes . . . disc-type clutch . . . simpler lubrication . . . sliding gear transmission. A very inexpensive car to buy—and a very economical car to run. Extremely easy terms.

YANKS MUST WHIP SENATORS—HUGGINS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 14.—Miller Huggins looks upon the Washington Senators as the team his New York Yankees will have to beat to win the 1925 American League pennant.

"Washington has a better team than they had last season and the club will have more spirit and confidence as a championship team. We'll have to play much better this season to beat them," Huggins said.

The Yankee manager thinks that Stan Coveleskie, Dutch Reuther and Veau Gregg are great additions to the Washington pitching staff. They are veterans, of course, but Huggins favors years and experience on a ball club.

Mike McNally will provide some badly needed reserve strength, as the team was notoriously weak last season in utility men. If Roger Peckinpaugh had been hurt early in the season, or if accidents had happened to any of the infielders, the Senators might not have been in the world's series.

New York's chances in the pennant race depend almost entirely upon Babe Ruth and Urban Shocker. If Ruth is in condition to play and if he continues to slug, hit and field like he did last year, he will inspire the whole team. The Yankees, as a unit probably will be more serious about their work than they were last year when they had a bad case of swelled-heads over the three pennants that they had won in succession. The team laughed at the race that was being made by the Washington club until it was too late to go out and get them.

When Ruth started South a few weeks ago he said he was thirty pounds overweight and he admitted that he had done very little work of any kind during the winter. He is at the age now where fat is removed very slowly and at the cost of a lot of labor.

Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the club, said some time ago that the team clinched the pennant when the deal was completed for the transfer of Shocker from St. Louis to New York. He seems to think that Shocker, the former Jinx of the Yankees will win twenty games and that the other pitchers will do better than they did last season.

In St. Louis the general opinion is that the Browns got all the better of the deal when they secured Joe Bush in exchange for Shocker.

STATE CHAMPION
WOLF HUNTER RETIRES

Long Prairie, Minn., Feb. 13.—L. M. Davis, attorney and former legislator from Todd county, has sold his last wolf hound and hung up his rifle for the winter—he has retired.

Wolf hunting isn't what it used to be especially when a man gets on in years, says Mr. Davis, and he should know for in the 40 years he has been pursuing the animals, he has killed more than 1,200. He claims the title of champion wolf hunter of Minnesota.

How Mr. Davis took up the hunting of wolves as a hobby is interesting. It seems that a little child, whose name has long since been forgotten, wandered alone in the township of Bruce. The child never was found alive, but in a patch of woods nearby were found a few bones and the remnant of a little dress, later identified as that worn by the child. It was thought that wolves had devoured her.

From that day Mr. Davis, spurred by horror over the fate of the child, became an enemy of wolves. He always had been an ardent hunter and he coupled his natural accomplishments with a plan for the effective extermination of the beasts in Bruce county.

He sent south for various breeds of blood hounds and as the years progressed developed a hound peculiarly adapted to tracking and fighting wolves. This pack of hounds in later years became famous for they were relentless in their hatred toward wolves and they seemed to share the driving, revengeful spirit of their master.

Later the hunt became more of a diversion and sport and Mr. Davis' work became so effective that farmers for miles around his home came to co-operate with him and report to him the presence of wolves in their neighborhood.

When once he and his dogs took the trail of a wolf or of a wolf pack, it was seldom that any of the wolves got away. Some times the hunt would continue for days and until the last animal had been run down and its scalp brought in.

The best record hung up by Mr. Davis was 57 wolves in one winter. He has averaged about 30 each year. Today there scarcely is a wolf in the county and sheep graze in the pastures as safely as cattle.

ENGBRETSON BACK TO FIGHTING, MAKING 13 OF 21 POINTS

EXCELLENT PASSING AND TEAM WORK SHOWN BY BRAINERD

Brainerd more than made up for their last week's defeat by playing one of the best basketball games of the season last evening and defeating Wadena High in the local gymnasium by the score of 21 to 10.

Engbretson was back fighting, making 13 of the 21 points. Excellent team-work and passing were features of the game, and Tribur and Dieckhaus on the defense were largely responsible for Wadena's few field goals.

Wadena, although fighting hard and displaying excellent passing, was unable to penetrate our defense caging only three field goals.

The line-up:

Substitutes for Wadena—Jansen for Young, Brainerd—none.

Referee—Adams of St. Cloud.

Score—1st half, 13 to 5; 2nd half, 21 to 10.

Second Team Wins Too

The Brainerd second team won its first game this year by defeating the Staples second team by the score of 13 to 12 in a fast preliminary here last evening. Both teams fought hard and the score saw-sawed back and forth until the final whistle. Rosenberg and Marshall led in the scoring for the locals, each tallying two field goals and one foul. Dunn starred for Staples, caging eight of the 12 points.

The line-up:

Brainerd	Staples
Marshall, r.f.	Round
Rosenberg, l.f.	Allen
Lyddon, c.	Dunn
Lawrenz, r.g.	Johnson
Putz, l.g.	Hallidat

Substitutes—Staples, Johnson for Hallidat; Anderson for Johnson.

With the Oldtimers

(By United Press)

Los Angeles, Feb. 14.—Barney Oldfield, first of the automobile speed kings, is spending his time around Southern California looking after extensive real estate holdings. He has lost the old speed bug and friends say he will not ride with anyone who "steps on it." Oldfield had a bad shock last year when Frank Chance, his bosom pal and almost inseparable companion, died.

New York, Feb. 13.—Mel Sheppard, one of the greatest runners of all time and the only American comparable to the famous Nurmi, is employed here in an athletic capacity by the John Wanamaker Company. He is the big boss of the Milrose Athletic Club, one of the biggest track organizations in New York. He hasn't had on a spiked shoe for years. "I know when I'm through," he says.

MOTLEY HIGH WINS
FROM HI-Y CLUB TEAM

The Hi-Y club basketball team met defeat last night at the hands of the Motley high school, at that place. The score was 15 to 5. Seegar, captain of the Hi-Y team, made two baskets for the losers. Hovenland, Seeley and Lavoy counted all the points for Motley.

A return game will be played at Brainerd in the near future. The lineup of the Hi-Y club was as follows: Seegar and Edling forwards, Viken center, Fredstrom and Brotherson guards, and Beckley and Ray Anderson subs. Motley had in its lineup Hovenland and Storhanden forwards, Seeley center, Peters and Lavoy guards. Herd of Staples refereed.

Tilden, Noted Author
Who Plays Tennis,
May Try Two-a-Day

New York, Feb. 14.—William T. Tilden II, athlete, journalist, novelist, bridge expert, and actor—both speechless and audible—has been offered a vaudeville contract calling for six weeks' effort in the elevation of the trained seal drama. He would have to do two performances a day, and in view of the success of Babe Ruth, Jack Dempsey, and other athletic authors who went on the stage, he may accept.

Tilden, who is still technically an amateur tennis player notwithstanding his work in the movies, is playing in the Heights casino invitation indoor tennis tournament, which began Thursday. He said he was considering the vaudeville offer.

As long as Tilden refrains from using his tennis rattle or demonstrating tennis in theatrical work he may retain his technical amateur status and championships.

IF KIDNEYS ACT
BAD TAKE SALTS

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seals and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system, so they longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Advt

Second Team Wins Too

The Brainerd second team won its first game this year by defeating the Staples second team by the score of 13 to 12 in a fast preliminary here last evening. Both teams fought hard and the score saw-sawed back and forth until the final whistle. Rosenberg and Marshall led in the scoring for the locals, each tallying two field goals and one foul. Dunn starred for Staples, caging eight of the 12 points.

The line-up:

Brainerd	Staples
Marshall, rf.	Round
Rosenberg, lf.	Allen
Lyddon, c.	Dunn
Lawrenz, rg.	Johnson
Putz, lg.	Hallidat

Substitutes—Staples, Johnson for Hallidat; Anderson for Johnson.

Brainerd—Mayo for Rosenberg; Koop for Lyddon.

Referee—Peterson of Brainerd.

Score—1st half, 8 to 9; 2nd half, 13 to 12.

PENN RELAY TEAM WILL RUN IN ILLINI MEET

Urbana, Ill., Feb. 14.—Pennsylvania's relay team has filed entry for the mile and two-mile relay in the eighth annual Illinois relay carnival, Feb. 28. The Pennsylvania relay team set the carnival record in 1922 of 8:01 2-5 for the two-mile.

With the Oldtimers

(By United Press)

Los Angeles, Feb. 14.—Barney Oldfield, first of the automobile speed kings, is spending his time around Southern California looking after extensive real estate holdings. He has lost the old speed bug and friends say he will not ride with anyone who "steps on it." Oldfield had a bad shock last year when Frank Chance, his bosom pal and almost inseparable companion, died.

New York, Feb. 13.—Mel Shepard, one of the greatest runners of all time and the only American comparable to the famous Nurmi, is employed here in an athletic capacity by the John Wanamaker Company. He is the big boss of the Milrose Athletic Club, one of the biggest track organizations in New York. He hasn't had on a spiked shoe for years. "I know when I'm through," he says.

MOTLEY HIGH WINS
FROM HI-Y CLUB TEAM

The Hi-Y club basketball team met defeat last night at the hands of the Motley high school, at that place. The score was 15 to 5. Seegar, captain of the Hi-Y team, made two baskets for the losers. Hovenland, Seely and Lavoy counted all the points for Motley.

A return game will be played at Brainerd in the near future. The lineup of the Hi-Y club was as follows: Seegar and Edling forwards, Viken center, Fredstrom and Brotherson guards, and Beckley and Ray Anderson subs. Motley had in its lineup Hovenland and Storchander forwards, Seely center, Peterson and Lavoy guards. Herd of Staples refereed.

Ray Going After 1,000-Yd.
Record in Brooklyn Meet

New York, Feb. 14.—Joie Ray, Illinois A. C. star middle distance runner, has accepted an invitation to compete in the special 1,000-yard run which will be one of the features of the indoor meet of the Knights of St. Anthony, which will be held in the 23d regiment armory in Brooklyn on Feb. 18. Ray, in filing his entry for the event, asserted he would make a determined effort to lower the world's indoor record for the distance.

Yankee Stars Start for Hot Springs Training

New York, Feb. 14.—Sam Jones, Urban Shocker, Wally Schang, Steve O'Neil and Deacon Scott started from their homes today for Hot Springs, where they will join Babe Ruth for advance training, the Yankee office announced.

Tilden, Noted Author
Who Plays Tennis,
May Try Two-a-Day

New York, Feb. 14.—William T. Tilden II, athlete, journalist, novelist, bridge expert, and actor—both speechless and audible—has been offered a vaudeville contract calling for six weeks' effort in the elevation of the trained seal drama. He would have to do two performances a day, and in view of the success of Babe Ruth, Jack Dempsey, and other athletic authors who went on the stage, he may accept.

Tilden, who is still technically an amateur tennis player notwithstanding his work in the movies, is playing in the Heights casino invitation indoor tennis tournament, which began Thursday. He said he was considering the vaudeville offer.

As long as Tilden refrains from using his tennis rackets or demonstrating tennis in theatrical work he may retain his technical amateur status and championships.

IF KIDNEYS ACT
BAD TAKE SALTS

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and sluggish. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system, so they longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv
